The MASON LINE

by Chan Mason

We were sure that with the broken window in the Post Office and the ink bottle on the sidewalk, we had the makings of a news item. We had visions of a customer finally blowing his lid over the condition of the P. O. pens and doing something about it. It turned out to be merely a domestic tiff. An item for Winchell perhaps but not for us.

With school opening less than a month away, maybe some of us will be able to get across Broadway and Main with the help of the School Safety Patrol when they go on duty.

Hats off to the Business Women's League. Those gals are terrific boosters for our town and seem to have a lot of fun in the process. Grant Hadley and Luther Hussey are going to form a men's auxiliary to the organization we understand.

Captain George Erassington now assigned to a medical detachment at Fort Lewis Washington finds that after the terrific pace set by our local medics in private practice he is bored silly by the inactivity in his present post. He would like to hear from his friends in the Grove. Mailing address, serial number 01756249, Med. Det. Field Artillery, 44th Infantry Division, Fort Lewis, Washington.

Speaking of doctors: that prodigy which spells itself backward was being plugged on Tee Vee the other evening and the announcer quaintly suggested "If you continue to be tired and run down, check your local doctor."

Continuing along these lines, try channel 2 some Friday at 10:00 p. m. Mr. Cavellero makes no attempt to be a comic but puts out a full half hour of real music.

Every photographer has heard the expression "This'll break the camera" and charges it to the hazards of operation.

It was said again last week to Hal Lenox, REVIEW staff photographer, by John Landesco, whose picture graces this paper. The picture reproduced was taken two days after the initial try because Lenox' camera actually broke during the first try.

They say that love makes the world go round but it pulled one of our local cafes to a screeching halt the other day.

The story is that the chef, struck by the beauty of the waitress, developed such a jealous disposition that male diners' health and well-being were often in jeopardy.

Cute things male diners usually say to favorite waitresses was asked upon by the chef with disfavor, almost to the point of bodily harm.

Owner of the cafe solved the problem neatly by closing the place for a month.

Result, the chef and the object of his affection have found employment in mid Arizona.

When the restaurant opens up next week, the staff may have the look of love in their eyes—but it will not be for each other.

Million Dollar Grant For Grossmont Hospital

A state and federal grant totaling $1,173,734 for the Grossmont Hospital District's proposed $2,000,000 building was awarded this week in Los Angeles by the governor's advisory council on hospitals and health centers.

Homer Streich, district secretary, and Burton L. Jones, a board member, appeared before the council to vie with 141 other requests for assistance this year. Forty-two of the requests were for hospital of which most were district type institutions. Grossmont District obtained the lion's share in individual grants, according to Streich. To qualify for the grant a bond issue of $800,000 must be passed by voters of the district.

Streich said that the east county hospital bed ratio of one bed to each 2,600 population compares poorly with the state average of six beds per 2,000. The hospital would serve a population of about 90,000, according to Streich.

Grossmont received full consideration, Streich believes, because of the poor comparison of hospital bed to population ratio.

John Landesco, 1940 Skyline Drive, Democratic County Central Committeeman of the Second Supervisorial District, looks ogish as he examines the menu from the Republican $100 a plate dinner held last week at the Kona Kai.

His wife, Mary, secretary of the League of Democratic Women for San Diego County, is considerably less perturbed as she examines a more realistically priced menu in Lemon Grove's Avalon Cafe as restaurateur Bill McQueen looks on.

In keeping its promise the REVIEW publishes herewith the menu served to more than 600 stout Republicans and a Review reporter who heard Representative William Knowland tell of Republican accomplishments since Eisenhower's election.

The menu:
Canapes
Shrimp Cocktail
Roast Prime Beef
Lobster Thermidor
String Beans
Baked Potato
Sauté of Pineapple Fingers
Strawberry Parfait
Coffee

McQueen is showing Mrs. Landesco the same selection on a "Democrat" menu for $1.25 "without the speech making," he added.

Bargain Days Set For Mid-September

Business houses in Lemon Grove are collaborating to make Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18 and 19, the biggest shopping bargain week-end in the history of the community.

Every firm in Lemon Grove will have special features on sale at attractive prices so as to bring the householder into the shopping community on those two days. Several firms will have give-aways in addition to deep mark down prices of wanted merchandise. For example there will be free root beer at Richie's; bud vases will be given to all corners as long as the supply lasts at McMahan's; Davis Market will give cotton candy to the kiddies; free cleaning fluid (a 35c size) will be given at the Standard Station at Buena Vista and Broadway in connection with an opening event scheduled for earlier that month; and the Chamber of Commerce will set up their famous free lemonade stand in the plaza on both days.

Local Qualifiers Named In Yellowtail Derby

Thirteen Lemon Grove fishermen including two women have officially qualified for the Seventh Annual Yellowtail Fishing Derby.

Derby Days are August 29 and 30 and 400 sportsmen are eligible in the contest for prizes including the 1953 Buick auto.

The minimum weight for qualifiers was 20 pounds. Nearly 30,000 fishermen landed more than 19,000 Yellowtail during the 20 week qualifying period.

In addition to the Buick, a trailer, Chris Craft boat, freezer and a television will be given.

Lemon Grove qualifiers are: Mel Hammerstein, 3350 Kempf; Howard Takahashi, 9360 Olive, Spring Valley; H. Perryman, 3245 Buena Vista; Terry Taylor, 8101 Roy; R. L. Browne, 3282 Main; Mary Marchesi, 8182 Baldwin Road; Itoko and Roy Nojima, P. O. Box 414; E. W. Schlicher, 9415 Barbie Lane, Spring Valley; W. L. MacQueen, Box 492; W. L. Thomas, 3215 Par Dr.; L. B. Weaver, 8572 Troy; J. E. Berg, Jr., 8025 Fairview.

The first step in a series of meetings that may ultimately bring master planning to Lemon Grove and the surrounding vicinity was taken last Wednesday at a well attended meeting of organization representatives in the Homeland Judicial Courtroom.

The meeting, with Attorney Luther Hussey as temporary chairman, was an extension of local Chamber of Commerce thinking.

About twenty persons representing a dozen active organizations heard Dr. Willis Miller, Director of County Planning, and Fred Hansen, chairman of the planning commission, describe the planning needs of the Lemon Grove area with a plea to "work together as a team to set up a community plan."

Also taking part in the proceedings was Bart Dunn, chief of the planning division for the county.

Hansen gave the keynote speech and reviewed the Spring Valley sanitation problem as an indication of planning needs.

Dr. Miller called the project "the most important over all community project this area has ever undertaken."

County officials pointed out that community planning is what the name implies. Planning will not get the community everything it wants, Miller pointed out but "if a man or a community knows what he wants, he will be more likely to get it."

Hero? Takes Lacing In Local Play

It looks as though our manly - bodied hero, Malvern Larkfield, isn't so hero-ish at the moment under the stinging tongue of his mother, Regina Larkfield. But rest assured, all's well in the end for Esther Jensen and Bob Turnbull, two of the Heartland Players' leading actors in "Caught in the Villain's Web." The play is to be held in the L. G. Woman's Club on August 28 and 29 and September 4 and 5 at 8:15. Tickets are on sale at Lane's Men's Wear and at the theater door.

Sonka-Aid Makes Lemonade

There'll be free lemonade a little while longer in Lemon Grove this summer and the Kiwanians will serve it.

This week the free lemonade project has been underwritten by Tony Sonka. Chamber of Commerce funds ran thin a couple of weeks ago and the future of the lemonade give-away was in doubt. Last week one of the local business men underwrote it, this week another. If other business firms will underwrite succeeding weeks the project will continue until cool weather comes.

Free lemonade is given from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. every Saturday in the little park on the south of Broadway at Imperial.

Every one, especially the children, are welcome to share it.

Miller said that a master plan already exists for branch administrative centers, one of which is scheduled for Lemon Grove. Planning, he indicated, tied in with the county's decentralization program, would give the planning project a running start. Master planning, according to the officials, is merely a plan agreed upon by a majority of people that would give the planning area its boundaries, indicate its parks and parking areas if such are desired and plan for streets and recreational centers as a backdrop for the orderly development of the area. Zoning will not be one of the considerations, although sanitation is.

The planning officials are already in the midst of a master plan for the South Bay area which has been attracting state wide attention. The request for planning through the local Chamber of Commerce has been adopted by the Board of Supervisors and approved by the Planning Commission which places an "official" stamp on the Wednesday meeting.

Bart Dunn, division chief, will be working very close with the committee and another meeting has been set for two months hence, Wednesday evening, October 14, at 7:30 p. m. Dunn said the first meetings would necessarily be slow in developing the plan because most of the commission is preoccupied with the South Bay project. It will be about six months before actual work on the plan gets under way and will take about one year to finish. Following the request of the Lemon Grove District for assistance in planning, it was agreed second on the county's agenda, to be worked upon when the South Bay job permitted.

As an over-all picture of San Diego planning, ten specified elements are given. They are:

1. Land use plan.
2. Streets and highway plan.
3. Community design plan.
4. Recreation plan.
5. Conservation plan.
6. Public buildings plan.
7. Transportation.
8. Public services and facilities plan.
9. Transit plan.
10. Housing plan.

Under public services come such important matters as water, sewage, fire and police protection, refuse disposal, utilities and street lighting.

One thing that was emphasized at the meeting was that neither incorporation or annexation would become a part of the program.

"The local master plan," Dr. Miller stated, "is a comprehensive, long term, general plan for the physical development of the community. We need to know what we want before we can hope to get it. The master plan," he added, "is an official statement of what we want."

Organization representatives present at the initial meeting and their current organization are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Harvey and Channing Mason, American Homes; Mildred Huebsch, Business Women's League; Harold Henaley, chief, Fire Department; J. W. Clark, Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce; Rev. Dan Apra, Lemon Grove Ministers' Group; Robert J. Buckner and Russ Foster, Monterey Heights Civic Organization; Lee Thompson, Greater Lemon Grove Civic Organization; Byron Neitzley, Lemon Grove School District; Zelda Bernier, Chamber of Commerce and Women's Club Seniors; Barbara Taylor, Marti Titmas and Betty Martin, Lemon Grove Juniors; R. F. Geitzen, Lemon Grove Home Rule Association; J. N. Lundquist and Frank L. Foster, Brookside Improvement Association; John Landesco, Kiwanis Club; Max Goodwin, Chamber of Commerce.

Hussey said that representatives of the Parent Teachers' Association in the area would be asked to attend the October 14 meeting. He pointed out, however, that any organization interested in community planning should see that a representative is present at the next meeting.

How To Buy Lumber

Lumber grades include all shades of value-worst to best.
So when you buy you cannot count on price as the final test.

It is wise to find a source on which you can depend for honest values to build as you intend.

It is our aim that our yard shall continue to be one of those favored firms you treat with complete confidence.

We know our sources of supply, we know our grades and we do not buy off grades to sell at a price. Our reputation is your assurance.

Itorium. Mrs. Elizabeth Crowningshield is an outstanding artist while Roy has devoted his singing and acting talents to little theater activities.

Endorsed by members of Foot-hills Kiwanis clubs, "Serafina" tells a colorful love story about people and events in San Diego under Mexican rule during the early 1800's.

Jerome Gerard, author of "Serafina" spent two years in historical research for the material for the operetta, the four scenes of which are highlighted with comedy, love and pathos. Gerard is associated with the Lemon Grove Review.

Renan Prevost, composer of the musical score and a Lemon Grove printer, has recreated the environment of the early Spanish days in the 26 songs for leading characters, in the overture and orchestration.

Invitation To Comfort

Surprise 'phone call! Overnight company coming. No spare room! Yet the smart homemaker who is aware that assurance of a good night's rest is every guest's hope, realizes that her first responsibility is to provide an attractive, comfortable bed.

In a trice the living room or Father's den becomes a temporary bedroom—the daytime davenport is turned into a bed—an inviting set-up for a weary traveler. The finishing touch is added by an easy-to-care-for chenille bedspread, the pride and joy of busy homemakers. No ironing, of course—and, for saving extra minutes, add the laundering process that combines the washing with the bluing. Use bead bluing with your soap or syndet; it has a special luminous ingredient that keeps the soft tufts whiter than white, and if you have chosen vivid or pastel backgrounds, these, too, will keep their bright hues with this method of laundering.

Washing a chenille spread is so simple! It's no trouble to keep them sparkling fresh. First, shake spread to remove excess dirt, soak in warm suds for no more than 15 minutes. Then dissolve a half cup of bead bluing in soft or softened hot water—140° for all white, 110° for colors. Add soap or syndet to make a standing suds, and run washer for 10 minutes. Rinse twice and wring well, folding tufts inside before putting through wringer.

Ideally, dry the spread in an automatic dryer; this will make the tufts as fluffy and lovely as they were originally, without further trouble on your part. If, like many of us, you still do not have one of these dryers, you can still do a good job with a special trick or two. Choose a breezy day for laundering. After wringing out water, shake well, then hang over a clothesline with tufts folded inside—the movement of the spread in the breeze will do a good self-fluffing job. While still slightly damp, remove from line and finish fluffing with a soft brush. Results? A beautiful bedspread to add to a guest's welcome.

District School Personnel In County Workshop

School District Administration is engaged this week in the activities of the S. D. County Administrator's workshop.

shop is Byron Netzel, local

Music Guild Takes Registrations

Registrations are now being taken at the San Diego Conservatory of Music, according to Jack Epstein, musician-director and member of the American Guild of Music. Epstein operates the teaching organization at 3147 El Cajon Blvd.

Individual instruction in piano voice and organ are under the personal tutelage of Epstein. Summer students have already taken part in recitals at Navy Hospital and the American Legion Post 6 and other places. Epstein has achieved considerable fame on the east coast before coming to California several years ago and is noted for his musical re-arranging in addition to teaching.

'Highland Lads and Lassies'

Bob Turnbull

The Man with the million dollar in his wallet and the man with the million dollar voice-box, Nat 'King' Cole by name, pleased hundreds of other Saturday night when he sang at the Mission Beach Ballroom. About every high school was represented, and among them, of course, was Helix. The Highland Lads and Lassies presented were Diane Ely 'n Dick Lorraine Sawyer 'n Butch King June Edwards and Dick Smith. Manuel Doria 'n Angelo Don Warfield 'n Date, plus Margie Quiscker, Bon Rief, Juliusulte, Ed Perkins, Elaine Sierragel, JoAnne Wilson and Jerry Dawson.

Out of a clear blue sky, a while back, I asked Patti Culver (ex-heerleader) if I could rummage through her wallet and then write an article on some of the junk, stuff, and more junk that found in a typical teen-age girl's wallet. After her O.K. I copied down some of the articles I saw and will relate them to you. (Actually her purse must have been in her wallet.) I saw three Hi-Debber cards, three A.S.B. cards, a learners permit, receipt from "House of Nine," receipt for "Cap and Gown," an old special permit to leave the school grounds, old grocery list, list of all her senior activities that have to be paid, permit to leave her hair up, receipt for her knit suit, old transfer request, two old Helix theatre junior admission cards, three free passes to the "Swing Club," list of names of what she knows nothing about, plus a couple of unmentionables. Pictures of Leslie McAvoy, Toni Wilson, Ernie Merk, Wayne Bell, Carlos Fackrell, Dale Paquin, Dale Gail, Marian Farrow, Shirley Campbell, Eleanor Freeman, Stu Harvey, Mary Alice Rigley, Pat Farrell, Renee Wilson, Rosi Motisi, Sandy Hessen, snapshot of Howie and Carlos Fackrell, Sally and Patti Culver, Bruce and Don Bender, Karl and Cedric Jordan, and pic's of 36 other chums. Besides that, the business end of her wallet held about 15 other articles to numerous to mention. Can any of you other girls beat that?

County Described In Auto Club Magazine

San Diego County's diversified scenic beauty is vividly described in the new issue of the Auto Club of Southern Cal.

This particular issue of the magazine is unusual in that it contains a complete guide to America's great Southwest written by one author, Weldon F. Heald, an authority on the lore of the land.

Heald writes: "There are some places upon which Nature seems to smile with benign benediction. San Diego County is such an area. There, scenery and climate have a combined to produce one of the loveliest countryside imaginable."

"Behind the gently sloping coastal mesas, parallel ranges of oak and chaparral-clad hills, separated by series of open, grassy valleys, extend inland like giant steps 40 miles to the summits of the San Diego mountains."

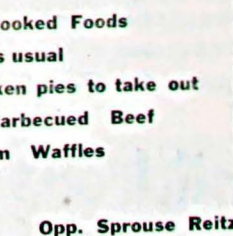

"Eastward from the mile-high crest is a sudden drop, 3,000-4,000 feet to the barren floor of the Colorado Desert," Heald continues.

"Along the coast, resort towns line the 65 miles of beach from the Mexican border to San Clemente, and in the interior are pleasant modern rural communities," he writes.

Nine chapters of the magazine are used to describe California.

Four field offices of the Federal Budget Bureau will be closed September 15 in an economy move that will eliminate eleven jobs.

Use Of Right Hand Lane Mandatory

"Only the far right will be all right!"

One of the 133 vehicle code changes to become effective on September 9 cites the truth of this statement to a considerable segment of California's vehicle population, Commissioner B. R. Caldwell of the California Highway Patrol announced today.

"Beginning September 9, any vehicle which is normally required to be driven at a reduced maximum speed because of weight, will also be required to operate in the right hand lane of traffic or as close as practicable to the right edge or curb," Caldwell explains.

Vehicles affected by this amendment include any motor truck and trailer, any motor truck alone or truck tractor with a semitrailer when the gross weight is 25,000 pounds or more, and any vehicle with solid rubber or metal tires.

Only exceptions to this provision will be to allow these vehicles to leave the right hand lane when passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when preparing to make a left turn.

La Mesa's new 73 by 82 foot swimming pool which cost the city $113,000 will open August 29. The pool is in M. Arthur Park near La Mesa Youth Center.

Try Planting These Colorful Carpets

Color! Color! Color! This is the result of planting ice plants or ivy geranium for ground cover in Lemon Grove. Both are long lived perennials that will give years of gardening satisfaction. The huge masses of blazing ic-plant and the billowy cascade of blooming ivy geranium plantings have long evoked admiration from visitors to Lemon Grove. And well they should, for rarely do we find such dazzling floral arrays.

Ice plant is a grand subject or curb and bank plantings once established, it is impervious to almost all attacks, withstanding drought, insects and full sun exposure. Given a few good soak-ings when the transplants are first set into the ground, they will sprout roots along the stem.

Ivy geranium is one of the most versatile of bedding plants and one that can be used in almost any conceivable location and exposure — hills, beach, walls, banks and hanging baskets. According to the California

Bedding Plant Advisory Board, colors generally available range from white to pink, rose red and lavender.

Ivy geraniums represent another permanent investment in garden pleasure. Given proper treatment, they increase in beauty year by year and once planted, are permanent guests in the garden until purposely removed.

JUST ONE OF 9 REASONS TO CHANGE TO A NEW ELECTRIC RANGE!

You literally "race" through your cooking when you have an electric range - because electricity is the fuel with no waste... heat is concentrated where you want it - when you want it.

Of course, speed is only one of 9 reasons to change to an electric range. Electric cooking and baking is cool - clean - dependable - automatic - it's the modern way.

A new electric range will save you money - make your cooking taste better. And actually - food cooked electrically is more healthful because you cook with practically no water.

For kitchen living 9 ways better, change to an electric range. Your dealer has many makes and models - any one of them can be yours on easy terms.
